

I am strongly opposed to the change in broadcast ownership rules the FCC is considering. I feel this is decidedly against the public interest and urge you to leave the current rules as they are.